

DISRUPT

FOR A WORLD
WITHOUT POLICE

IACP 2017

October

International Association of Chiefs of Police

This October, the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) will hold their annual conference in Philadelphia. This is a call for an ambitious mobilization to directly disrupt the conference, to publicly spread an explicitly anti-police position, and to attempt to open up space that is hostile to state control.

AGAINST WHITE SUPREMACY // AGAINST THE POLICE
FOR A WORLD WITHOUT COPS, PRISONS, OR BORDERS.
FTP//1312

March Against IACP & Against All Police
Saturday, 10/21, 10AM
Thomas Paine Plaza

To kick off resistance to the IACP throughout their conference, a march has been called for the morning of Saturday, Oct. 21st, the first day of the conference. Meeting at Thomas Paine Plaza at 10AM, we will do our best to make it clear that the IACP and all police are firmly unwelcome in Philly.

#AbolitionWeekend.
It's going down.

Philly for REAL Justice has called for two events as part of #AbolitionWeekend:

October 21-24, police chiefs from all over the nation will be gathering in Philadelphia. But we are clear that they are the heads of military forces which occupy black and brown communities, terrorizing and killing civilians. They will not come into our city without opposition.

Saturday, 10/21, 12PM
Pennsylvania Convention Center

We rally outside of the Pennsylvania Convention Center, to denounce the militarized policing that plagues our country.

Sunday, 10/22, 12PM
Pennsylvania Convention Center

We will hold space as we discuss the theory of police abolition and the ways that we can fight for our freedom from the militarized police state.
